July 2009

Hello to everyone out there...

We are bottling the first of our THE 2009 vintage next week.

We are doing our:

- Sauvignon Blanc 2009
- Pinot Gris 2009
- Viognier 2009

With a lot of wine events and shows coming up we need some stock on hand.

We are, like many Marlborough wineries, still battling our way through the 2008 vintage.

Have you heard of “Murrays Barn”? This is our ancillary brand and I have been busy around the grocery trade placing it. “Murrays Barn” is named after my dad Murray Hammond and the barn is situated on the vineyards on SH63 West of Renwick.

We have a 2008 Sauvignon Blanc and have just released a 2008 Pinot Noir. We have just redesigned the label and will release the new packaging with our Murrays Barn Sauvignon Blanc 2009. So please keep an eye out for “Murrays Barn” and of course some pretty sharp THE pricing on the 08 vintage.

Cheers,
Steve
